MURDER MYSTERIES

A "Jack, the Strangler," Turns Upin New York.

TWO MYSTERIOUS CRIMES

One Woman Found by Police Choked to Death, Another Strangled with a Necktie Knotted Tightly About Her Throat.

New York, July 31.—The bodies of two women with the marks of strangling on their throats, have been found here within the last twelve hours, and the police believe that one man committed both crimes. None of the victims has been identified.

One woman was found dead in an alleyway early Tuesday. The marks of a thumb and a forefinger were visable on her throat, and her face and neck were covered with blood. She was about 27 years old.

No one in the neighborhood had heard any sound of a struggle.

In the other case, the woman was the victim of a strangler, and was found in a Twenty-second street boarding house. The woman came to the house with a man who gave his name as Davis. Her body was found Monday night in the room the couple had occupied. A necktie had been knotted tightly around her throat, and she had been dead for several hours.

The blood vessels in the neck were broken and the woman's clothing was drenched with blood.

No trace of the man, who had the appearance of a foreigner, has been found.

The dead woman was about 24 years of age.

CLAIMED OFFICERS FLUNKED.

New York Policemen on Trial for Alleged Cowardice.

New York, July 31.—Two policemen, Stephen Walsh and Tracy Rossa, are on trial before Police Commissioner Bingham, on charges of cowardice. The men, it is alleged, followed Frank H. Warner just after he killed Esther Norling, in Forty-second street, recently, but when he fired a shot, the pursuing officers are said to have flunked and allowed him to escape.

The cases are attracting a good deal of public attention because while in the past there have been many and varied charges against New York policement, this is the first time in forty years that the courage of any of the men have been questioned.

Lightning Plays Havoc.

Lexington, Ga., July 31.—A heavy rain passed over this county Monday, accompanied with heavy thunder and vivid flashes of lightning. Among other casualties lightning struck the barn of Dr. W. H. Reynolds, in town, passing down through the roof, killing his fine-blooded mare, "Red Ethel," worth $300. It passed diagonally through the hall and killed a fine mule in the opposite of the stable. The barn was burned in places, but not destroyed.

Big Fire at Rushton, La.

Rushton, La., July 31.—Fire that started in the union railroad station here burned that structure and after spreading to adjoining buildings, destroyed property valued at about $100,000 before being finally subdued. Besides the railroad station, buildings occupied by Thompson & Hussey were destroyed. The offices of the Southern and Wells-Fargo companies were also burned. The origin of the fire has not yet been determined.

Russo-Japanese Treaty.

Paris, July 31.—M. Kurino, the Japanese minister to France, is the authority for the following information concerning the Russo Japanese Treaty on commerce and navigation which was signed at St. Petersburg. The treaty embraces five subjects commercial relations, fishery rights, the junction of the Manchurian railroads, the delimitation of frontiers and political relations.

IMPORTANT RULING.

Is Made by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Washington, July 31.—In an opinion handed down by Commissioner Clements, the interstate commerce commission decided that the present rate of 11 cents per hundred pounds on cotton goods by the sea and by the from Augusta, Ga., to New York is not unreasonable.

The case was that of the Warren Manufacturing company, of Augusta, and others against the Southern railway company and others. The commission held that the absorption of a competing line of railway by another is an alleged violation of the statutes of the state is a matter within control of the state courts and can be considered by the commission only in its ultimate results of inducing unreasonable rates.

Further, the commission holds that the violation of the so-called anti-trust act by unwarranted agreements to the restraint of trade by carriers of interstate commerce is not within the jurisdiction of the commission, but only the correction of unreasonable rates which may be the purpose and effect of such legal act.

The long-continued carriage of any article of freight at certain rates, while establishing a presumption that such rates are reasonable and remunerative, is not alone conclusive, but to carry such presumption must show a settled practice or policy.

Where a rate is comparatively the lowest in its territory on a given article of freight and by reason thereof is made the basis of reductions from competitive points, it will not be further reduced on the ground alone that it had, at stated times in the past, been somewhat lower, unless it be shown that it is unreasonably high for the service performed.

POWERS AGAIN ON TRIAL.

Sensational Motion Made to Swear Judge Off the Bench.

Georgetown, Ky., July 31—For the fourth time Caleb Powers was placed on trial here Monday, charged with complicity in the murder of William Goebel, with Special Judge J. E. Robbins on the bench. Immediately after court convened Judge James E. Sims, of counsel for Powers, entered a motion and filed an affidavit in its support to have the sitting judge sworn off the bench.

Court adjourned until Tuesday to give the commonwealth attorneys time to consider the motion and affidavit.

Although not officially given out, it is reported that the allegations against Judge Robbins are sensational, charging prejudice in the former trial. The court will pass on the motion for removal.

Prohibition Stops Building.

Savannah, Ga., July 31.—The Union Savings Bank, of Augusta, some time ago determined on the erection of a thoroughly modern and up-to-date office building. The committee having in charge the matter of selecting the plans visited Savannah and were so favorably impressed with the National building that they had about determined to have a similar building erected. Accordingly, they were on the eve of closing a contract with Architect H. W. Withcover for plans when the prohibition agitation became so acute that they wrote him on Saturday that the idea of making the improvements had been abandoned. They gave state prohibition as a reason, saying it would greatly injure Augusta if the bill was passed.

Posse Kills Negro.

Westchester, Pa., July 31.—Geo. Thomas, a negro, who shot his wife here Sunday and then fled, was traced to a barn near here Monday night. Thomas refused to surrender, and shots were exchanged. At daylight Thomas was found dead in the hayloft with a bullet hole in the temple. It has not yet been determined whether he shot himself or was killed by a bullet fired by one of the posse. His wife is dying in a hospital here.

Business Blocks Burned.

Auburn, N. Y., July 31.—Fire destroyed three business blocks in the village of Moravia early Tuesday, entailing a loss of $25,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

New York Police Promise Startling Developments.

BLACKMAILING SCHEMES

Armenians Said To Be Practicing Extortion Methods. Securing Money from Other and More Prosperous Armenians.

New York, July 31.—The police and district attorney's office promise new and startling developments in their investigation of blackmail and extortion practiced upon prosperous Armenians in this city by other Armenians, and the murder recently of H. S. Tavshanjian, the wealthy rug merchant.

It is stated that Bedros Hamparbonian, who killed Tavshanjian and is now in the Tombs under indictment for murder in the first degree, lived at Lowell, Mass., at the home of an uncle for several years. His real name is said to be Bedros Kachadorian. He is an ardent adherent of the Hunchakist, the Armenian society, one faction of which is credited with threatening letters to rich Armenians if they do not contribute to revolutionary funds.

Khachadorian is said also to have always been devoted to Father Mardoossian, the Armenian priest who has been placed under arrest in connection with the case. The priest, it is said, visits him in Lowell.

WOMAN WAS SCALPED.

Remarkable Accident Happens to a Montgomery Young Lady.

Montgomery, Ala., July 31.—Miss Kate O'Connor lies in a critical condition at St. Margaret's hospital, with her scalp torn from her head from under one ear to the other and the certainty of being bald for the rest of her life.

Passing under a shaft at a local ice factory Monday night, her hair was caught and she was jerked from her feet, hanging there for several minutes, while her scalp was pulled slowly from her skull. She was unconscious when the doctor arrived, but fainted soon after.

At the hospital she is said to be resting easily with every prospect for great disfigurement for the rest of her life. She was a member of a party of young people who had gone to the ice factory for a watermelon cutting.

PASSENGERS WHITEWASHED.

Peculiar Occurence In Fourth Avenue Tunnel in New York.

New York, July 31.—Fifteen passengers, generally well dressed, were whitewashed Monday night while riding through the Fourth avenue tunnel in an open car.

Whitewashers of the tunnel roof and walls are using a pneumatic spray system and as the car in question came along something went wrong and the spray was directed toward it. The motorman according to the passengers, stupidly stopped his car. He was drenched. Then he started the car through the stream and as it slowly began to move there was ample time to drench every one of the passengers. The angry passengers declared their white suits would become damage suits.

Johnstone to Succeed Pettus.

Birmingham, Ala., July 31.—The successor to Senator E. W. Pettus, who died Sunday in Hot Springs, N. C., will be former Governor Joseph F. Johnston, of Birmingham. At the state primaries last year candidates for the senatorships were voted on and Senator J. H. Bankhead received the highest vote.

Church Destroyed by Lightning.

Wrightsville, Ga., July 31.—Information has been received at this city that the Methodist church in this county has been burned. The origin of the fire was caused by lightning, there being in that section in the morning a terrible electrical storm.

ROADS FILED PETITIONS.

They Make Parting Shot at State Authorities.

Asheville, N. C., July 31.—A parting shot at the state authorities in the railroad controversy was fired through petitions which the Southern railway and the Atlantic Coast Line filed before Judge Pritchard on Monday, asking that his interlocutory injunction be modified in accordance with the "peace" agreement reached Saturday at Raleigh between Gleen and the railroads.

Both roads file petitions very similar in tone which explained a conference here Monday between attorneys representing the two roads. The petition of the Southern railway recites the entire history of the railroad cases and includes a protest against what the roads regard as their ill treatment, this protest and recital of facts being designed for perusal of the supreme court of the United States as well as for the public.

The railroads declare, in effect, that they were cajoled into becoming a party to the agreement effected at Raleigh that the public mind has been inflamed by the newspapers and the utterances of politicians, and the agreement was only assented to under duress, because of threats of an extra session of the legislature for the purpose of adopting legislation hostile to the railroads.

HIS SANITY DOUBLTED.

Huntington Shot Brothers and Sisters at Bedside of Dying Father.

Versailles, France, July 31.—M. Hirsch, the examining magistrate before whom the Huntington case has been brought, has decided that Henry Huntington who Sunday night shot and wounded two sisters and two brothers at the bedside of his dying father, should be examined as to his sanity.

M. Hirsch told the Associated Press that the prisoner, who at times was strangely agitated, told such conflicting stories that he was convinced he was suffering from neurasthenia and the magistrate considers that Henry Huntington's wife is similarly affected.

Mrs. Huntington admitted that her husband had twice been under treatment for nervous disorders.

Homecomers Tendered Reception.

Boston, July 31.—The host of homecomers, who are in this city attending the old home week exercises were tendered a public reception Tuesday at which they were welcomed to the state and city by Governor Guild and Mayor Fitzgerald. The feature of the events of the day was a muster and play out of veteran firemen, half a hundred hand tubs participating in the display after a march through the principal streets of the city. The families whose members are scattered over many sections of the country gathered here for their reunions and one of them, the Fairbanks family, had as its representative the vice president of the United States.

Another Alpine Victory.

Geneva, July 31.—Another hitherto unclimbed Alpine mountain has been surmounted by Signor Castelnuevo, a Milanese, who has ascended the highest of the three peaks called the Dames Anglaise in the Mon Blanc range. It is 11,400 feet high, the last few hundred yards being a smooth and practically perpendicular rock. Nearly all the most celebrated mountain climbers in Europe, including the duke of Abruzzi, have vainly attacked the peak which had come to be regarded as insurmountable. Signor Castelnuevo was twelve hours making the ascent.

Drouth in Jamaica is Severe.

Kingston, Jamaica, July 31.—The central districts of this island are suffering from a severe drouth and the outlook for the banana crop is not bright. The drouth, it is said, has caused greater loss than even the earthquake and fire which laid Kingston in ruins last January. There is a severe famine in some districts of St. Elizabeth parish and half a dozen deaths from starvation have been reported. A short, sharp earthquake shock was felt here Sunday. No harm was done.

MUST HURRY MAILS

Western Roads Are Fined For Delay In Delivery.

NEW RULE OF UNCLE SAM

Roads Claim That This is Oppressive and Unjust—Railroad Officials Hold Important Conference on the Question of Carrying Mail.

Chicago, July 30.—Western railroads are near an open break with the postoffice department over the transportation of the mails, owing to a number of recent orders. The latest cause of grievance is the imposition of heavy fines on nearly all the roads for delay in delivering the mails. To consider the situation, a number of railroad officials held an important conference here Monday.

One of them declares that the fines levied by the government against his road in one quarter amounted to $40,000. A similar condition on other roads was reported.

The lines were assessed under a rule which went into effect in July, 1906. The roads are amazed to find that they are in danger of losing 15 per cent of their mail pay unless they revise schedules and place their mail trains upon running time which they know they can maintain in all seasons and in all kinds of weather.

The new rule, the roads claim, is oppressive and unjust. It provides that if the mails are late ten times on any route during a period of 30 days, the road shall be assessed 15 per cent of the pay of that route for the quarter.

Under the speed standard as now established, operating men declare it would be amenable for most any of the big western system to escape having their important mail trains late more than ten times in ninety days.

It was stated in Monday's conference that the postoffice department is preparing in many cases to insist upon one sized car westbound and an entirely different car on eastbound. One of the government inspectors is quoted as telling a railroad official this was being done because of the knowledge that rather than to send head cars over their routes, the railroads would in all such cases, use the larger car both ways, whereupon the government would give pay for the larger size car in only one direction.

The railroads insist their mail revenues are severely threatened, that something must be done.

LOOTERS WERE ACTIVE.

A Surprising Feature of the Long Beach Hotel Fire.

New York, July 31.—A feature of the fire which destroyed the mammoth Long Beach hotel and in which a number of guests were driven out in scanty attire, has just developed.

In their hurried flight, the guests abandoned money, jewelry and valuable property, and looters, like vultures, were quick to take advantage of the fact. Detectives who were sent to the scene arrested three negro waiters. The men were held on a charge of grand larceny.

Justice Wallace, who gave the looters a hearing, was informed that thieves had buried stolen property in the dunes back of the hotel, and he ordered a search.

The amount of property recovered was surprising.

By dark, Justice Wallace had bundles and boxes containing valuables. He had rings and pins and stickpins, watches and chains, and a great collection of all sorts of jeweled combs and silver-backed toilet articles and some dresses and suits.

Sun Bakes Boll Weevil Grub.

Baton Rouge, La., July 31.—Enormous numbers of boll weevil grubs have been baked to death by the scorching sun of the past two weeks, according to the state crop pest commissioners' report. The heat has done more good than harm in Louisiana, killing so many grubs as to make prospects of a fair crop, in sections where the outlook was worst.

ALABAMA WOMAN KILLS HUSBAND

Turpentine Operator Meets Death for Pulling Wife's Hair.

THE MAN WAS INTOXICATED

When He Returned Home, According to Wife's Story, and Objected to Arrangement of Her Hair—Man Well Known.

Brewton, Ala., July 31.—Because he objected to his wife's arranging her hair a la Pompadour, Joseph Givens of near this city, who is well known and probably the wealthiest turpentine operator in Alabama, was shot dead by his estranged helpmate last Sunday. Mrs. Givens is young and pretty and a member of an old and prominent family. She has not been arrested and will probably not be.

According to Mrs. Given's story her husband came home under the influence of liquor. She had just finished dressing her hair, and the style attracted his attention.

"He told me never to dress my hair that way," she alleges he said. He caught me by the hair, I think, pulled me to my knees and declared he was going to kill me. I broke away and ran, but he caught me. Fearing for my life, I got a shotgun and fired into his body. Givens fell dead at once. I had to do it to save my life."

FATAL FIGHT AT VALDOSTA

Shooting Affray Results From Recent Prohibition Election.

Valdosta, Ga., July 31.—Will O'Brien, a son of John O'Brien, one of the wealthiest citizens of this section, shot and probably fatally wounded his brother-inlaw, Mr. McEachern, at the home of John O'Brien on Sunday afternoon at a late hour.

It is understood that there have been serious differences between the two men ever since the prohibition election a month ago, on of them being an anti-prohibitionist and the other a prohibitionist. O'Brien was drinking heavily and he is considered the aggressor of the difficulty. Three balls from a pistol entered the body of McEachern, and the physicians say he will die from the wounds.

Beautiful Women.

CHARGED WITH DESERTION OF WIFE

Alvin DeLano Arrested And Taken Back to Michigan.

WAS RESIDING WITH FATHER

Sheriff Fennell Arrested Young Man in This City and Sheriff of Jackson County, Mich., Came for Him—No Requisition Required.

A short time ago Sheriff Fennell received a letter from Sheriff Geo. H. Bean of Jackson county, Mich., requesting him to take into custody a young white man by the name of Alvin DeLano, who was charged with deserting his young wife in the far Western State. Except for having been given the wrong number of the street as the place of DeLano's residence, Sheriff Fennell experienced little trouble in making the arrest, when he promptly wired the Michigan sheriff to come for his prisoner, and Sheriff Bean reached this city Monday night with the requisition for DeLano from the Governor of Michigan. Of course the prisoner could have required the officer to have Governor Broward honor the requisition, but he consented to return without putting Sheriff Bean to this trouble, and the officer left here Tuesday with his prisoner.

A Young Husband.

Alvin DeLano does not appear to be over twenty years of age. He came to Gainesville about four weeks ago with his father, who is a carpenter residing at 208 West Main street N. He was married about a year ago, it is said, to a very handsome young lady of Jackson, Mich., which is the county seat of Jackson county, but did not live with her long. He was arrested on the charge of desertion, but the case was compromised and the couple again took up their residence in the same house. This did not last very long, however, and DeLano again abandoned his wife. He was arrested the second time and gave bond for his appearance at the time set for his trial, but when the case was called the young man had followed his father to the Land of Flowers. The crime of desertion under the laws of Michigan is a very serious one, the maximum penalty being three years' imprisonment, and it may be some time before father and son again see each other.

Sheriff Geo. H. Bean.

The Michigan sheriff created a very favorable impression with those with whom he came in contact in this city. He is a fine looking gentleman, and has every appearance of being a Southerner, though he is not. He is exceedingly popular in his county, as evidenced by the fact that he was the only candidate elected on the Democratic county ticket at the last election. Sheriff Bean extended Alachua county's worthy sheriff a pressing invitation to visit him some time in the near future, and Wash says he is going to avail himself thereof at his earliest convenience, as he has heard so much regarding the excellent sport running down big game, especially deer, in Michigan that he is anxious to take a look at the country.

PROTRACTED MEETINGS.

Rev. F. M. Hartman Makes Interesting Announcement.

The people of the northern portion of Alachua county will have the opportunity to attend a number of religious meetings during the month of August.

Rev. F. M. Hartman, Missionary Baptist, requests The Sun to make the following announcement:

On August 3rd he will commence a meeting at Antioch church, two miles south of LaCrosse, continuing into the following week. Rev. Z. A. Crumpton will preach for the congregations after Sunday.

A meeting will commence at North Pleasant Grove church, two and a half miles south of Worthington Springs, on August 18th. Rev. T. J. Vans of Live Oak conducting the services after Sunday.

The services at LaCrosse will begin August 25th and continue as long as interest warrants. Rev. J. C. Collum of Waldo will do the preaching after the 26th.

Everybody is extended a cordial invitation to attend each and all of these meetings.

BIDS FOR SEWER LATERALS.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Public Works of the City of Gainesville, Florida, on Thursday, August 8th, 1907, at 3 o'clock p. m. at the office of W. W. Hampton, secretary, for constructing approximately six miles of 4-inch sewer house laterals. Specifications may be obtained on application. A certified check in the sum of $500, made payable to Board of Public Works, must accompany each bid, as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract should the work be awarded to him. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. W. W. HAMPTON,
Secretary Board of Public Works.

In Judge Mason's Court.

There was a case in Judge Mason's court yesterday in which D. G. Roland was suing the Cummer Lumber Co. for damages to a cow.

J. A. Carlisle represented the plaintiff while Judge H. Davis appeared for the defendants. The case was argued before Judge Mason, who took the same under consideration and will render his verdict today.

GRAND OPENING OF NEW HOSTELRY

Reception to The Public Last Night At White House.

GAINESVILLE'S NEW HOTEL

Major W. R. Thomas, Owner, and Proprietor James Van Allen Royally Entertained All Who Attended the Reception—Music and Refreshments.

A large number of ladies and gentlemen accepted the invitation to inspect The White House, Gainesville's new hotel, last night and partake of the hospitality of the owner Major W. R. Thomas, and Proprietor James Van Allen.

The guests began assembling at an early hour in the evening and were given opportunity to inspect the new hostelry, which is located on East Main street, north, the most attractive section of the city, and all expressed surprise at the great improvements made in the building.

The vast assemblage was regaled with elegant refreshments, and local musicians furnished enchanting music, which was greatly enjoyed and highly appreciated.

The White House is second to no hostelry in the State of Florida in the way of comfort, and the owner and proprietor propose to conduct it in a manner that will reflect credit upon the city and give satisfaction to those who favor them with their patronage.

Mr. Van Allen is an experienced hotel man, and the public can rest assured that they will get their money's worth at The White House, the doors of which will be opened for business this morning.

PARRISH-MILNER.

Two Popular Young People Married Last Night.

Mr. L. B. Parrish and Miss Georgia Milner were quietly married at the home of the bride's mother in East Gainesville last night at 8 o'clock, Rev. James Lee of the Advent Christian church officiating. Only the immediate members of the family of the bride were present.

The young couple are very popular among their acquaintances, all of whom wish them much joy and happiness.

THE LOWMANS INDICTED.

For Killing Dunlap Phinny—Motion for Change of Venue.

The news from Bronson yesterday was to the effect that the grand jury had returned true bills against the Lowmans for the murder of Dunlap Phinny, charging them with murder in the first degree. Counsel for defendants moved for a change of venue, which was resisted by the State's attorney, and the court had the matter under consideration. If the motion is granted the case will be tried in Alachua county.

SEWER CONNECTIONS.

There is general complaint on the part of property owners at the action of the City Council in adopting the ordinance directing the Board of Public Works to make all requisite connections with the public sewer mains along the streets, thus depriving property owners of the right to contract for such connections and have the entire work of connecting their premises with the sewerage mains at one and the same time, and by the same contractor. Of course the work should be done by a competent plumber and under city inspection, but no one should be denied the right to have the work done within a specified time. The ordinance has the appearance of having been enacted in the interest of some particular individual, instead of in the interest of the whole people.

Section two of the ordinance estimates the cost for the sewerage laterals at seventy-five cents per front foot upon the property fronting or abutting upon streets where connections are made. This estimate is preposterous, and was evidently made by someone who knows about as much about the matter as the man in the moon. If this estimate was correct, and enforced strictly in compliance with the letter of the ordinance, a person owning a one-hundred-foot lot fronting on a particular street would be required to pay $75 for sewerage connection to his property lines, though only twenty feet of lateral sewerage pipe had to be put in; and the person owning a four-hundred-foot lot fronting on the same street under the same conditions would be assessed $300. Will any sane person contend that this is just?

There has been entirely too much disposition on the part of the powers that be to deprive the people of their rights under the existing charter, and this ordinance is about the limit.

One hour after their marriage a Pennsylvania couple decided to separate. Some people are so impatient that they don't give the marriage ceremony a chance to take.

The general disposition to look on the Cortelyou boom as a joke may be due to the hot weather, and then again, it may be due to Republican leaders' cold feet.

It is rather bold in a man who has succeeded in making the Republican elephant do so many unheard of things to denounce anybody for nature-faking.

The railroads are forming their usual poor opinion of the man who manages to make himself comfortable at home for the summer months.

In view of what has happened recently it might be well for the manager of the Cannon boom to guard against danger of a flare-back.

If all our life were one day of wild, delirious laughter, at last we would sigh for grief that would break its monotony and dreariness.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

They Were Dubbed "Hell of Fellows."

Some one with an eye to the curious observes that the names of the four members of the State Senate who spoke and voted against the service pension bill began with the same letter, "H," and they were the only Senators whose name began with that letter. They were Senators Henderson, Humphries, Harris and Hudson. All the rest of the alphabet voted "Aye."—Times-Union.

Lets Have Plenty of Them.

It has been discovered that the Australian blue eye, a fish one and a half or two inches long, which can live and flourish in comparatively shallow water, is a voracious feeder on the larvae of mosquitoes. The Italian government has just imported a few thousands of these fish from Australia for use in those parts of the kingdom where they are needed most. Let's have some in Florida.—Times-Union.

Equal to the Emergency.

Certain Georgians, with prohibition staring them in the face, may find encouragement in the announcement that a Danish civil engineer has succeeded in producing beer in the form of tablets. These tablets, when dissolved in hot water, supply (when cooled) beer of excellent quality and flavor. So that it may not be uncommon for the Atlanta club man to carry his beer in his vest pocket.—St. Augustine Record.

Florida's Wild Animals.

A reader of The Times-Union writes us of a tiger which he helped to kill in 1858 in a Hernando county hammock which measured nine feet from tip to tip. He says that what is called a tiger in Florida is really the American cougar, called also the mountain lion in the West. From all accounts this is as dangerous a beast as the real tiger of the Indian jungles and even more savage than the lion. The one killed in Columbia county was said to be seven feet long, tip to tip. That such creatures still survive in even so populous a country as Columbia shows how much wild and undeveloped land there still is in this State.—Times-Union.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

House Asked to Increase Powers of Railroad Commission.

Atlanta, July 31.—With only one dissenting vote, the house committee on railroads recommended the passage of the Candler bill. The bill before being voted on was explained by the author as to provisions in several minor particulars.

J. Hill Hall, of Bibb, cast the only dissenting vote against the favorable report on the bill. He will lead the fight in the house on that provision of the bill increasing the number of commissioners from three to five members.

Exhaustive argument was delivered on the bill Monday afternoon in the presence of many interested spectators.

Penitentiary Matters.

With Mr. Holder, of Jackson, as chairman, the house committee on penitentiary matters, was organized Monday afternoon and several of the bills referred to this committee acted upon.

Chief of these was that measure which has already been passed by the senate, and of which Senator Brooks is the author, providing for the inspection by subcommittees from the house and senate of the various convict camps of the state when the general assembly is not in session. This was agreed to without a dissenting vote.

What promises to revolutionize the system of examining and checking up banks in the state is the bill to create a bureau of banking, as passed by the house, is enacted into a law.

This bill is the evolution of exhaustive study by the leading bankers of the state and was especially recommended by the legislative committee of the Georgia Banker's association, of which Joseph McCord, of Atlanta, is chairman.

One charter will serve for both gas and electric companies where the power can be furnished for heat, light and operation purposes if the senate bill, passed by that body and favorably recommended by the house committee on corporations, becomes a law.

Special Judiciary Committee.

At a well-attended meeting of the special judiciary committee Monday afternoon, presided over by Vice Chairman Walker, of Washington, that bill by Mr. McMichael, of Marion, increasing the compensation of the secretaries to supreme court justices from $1,500 to $2,000 a year was favorably reported. In view of the increased burden placed upon this court and consequent opportunities secretaries who will assist the decisions, this increase was felt to be deserved.

A number of local bills were acted upon favorably by this committee before adjourning subject to the call of the chairman.

GETS HIS FREEDOM.

Charles H. Moyer Released from Custody on Heavy Bond.

Boise, Idaho, July 30.—Judge Wood in the district court Monday afternoon ordered Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000. Cash bail may be given.

The trial of George A. Pettibone, one of the alleged conspirators, was set for Tuesday, Oct. 1. No application for bond was made in behalf of Pettibone, the conference of counsel having been fruitless in this respect.

Haywood expects to leave for Denver on Thursday. Moyer may leave Wednesday if there is no hitch in the bail proceedings.

Children in Pain

Never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Jealousy Caused Much Shooting.

Ardmore, I. T., July 30.—At Wapanuska, I. T., Edgar Ball, a railroad employee, shot and fatally wounded his young wife, shot his sister-in-law, Miss Maggie Dobson, through the thigh, then shot himself through the heart. Jealousy is supposed to be the motive for the crime.

Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of mere professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has THE BACKING OF HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging-down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription;" it will not perform miracles; it will not dissolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this remedy of known composition.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

BRIEF DISPATCHES.

The final report of the executors of the estate of Matthew Field has been approved by Judge Charles in the county court at Chicago. The report shows that $10,811,670 was collected and all of that sum except $575,121 had been distributed.

Commissioner Ishii, who has been sent by the Japanese government to investigate conditions in Hawaii and America affecting his countrymen, has arrived at Honolulu and is the guest of Japanese merchants. He will meet secretary of commerce and Labor, Mr. Straus.

Governor R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, is to be one of the chief speakers at the annual dinner of the Brooklyn Democratic club at the Brighton Beach hotel on August 26.

A pleasant morsel of gossip in society circles in New York is a reported visit of President and Mrs. Roosevelt. They have accepted, it is stated, an invitation to visit this city August 15, when they will be the guests of Commodore and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt at Bradley for several days.

Georgian Killed at Jamestown.

Norfolk, Va., July 31.—James L. Kettle, of Athens, Ga., was killed and T. F. Davis, of Birmingham, Ala., was injured Monday on the Pine Beach pier at the Jamestown exposition by a Norfolk and Portsmouth Traction company trolley car. Kettle was killed trying to rescue Davis, who had been struck by the fender of the car and knocked down. Kettle tried to jerk his friend from the perilious position and was struck on the head. He was thrown off the pier. His skull was fractured. Davis is not seriously injured.

Two Die in Same Family.

West Point, Ga., July 31.—Thomas DeLoach, an aged citizen of Longsdale, Ala., died at his residence on Monday night. Just a few hours before he died, his granddaughter, Lucile Thompson, aged 2 years, died, and their bodies were taken to the cemetery in hearses, one following the other. The procession was through seventeen miles of country.

Don't Be Blue

And lose all interest when help is within reach. Herbine will make that liver perform its duties properly. J. B. I have used it constantly. I believe it to be the best medicine of its kind, and I wish all sufferers from these troubles to know the good Herbine has done me." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

DOGFISH CUTLET.

Said to Be as Good as the Best Lobster Ever Eaten.

Dogfish ought to be good to eat, as it is well known that they feed on eels, plaice and flounders. The naturalist hailing from the north Kent marshes with whom I collaborated in various books said that in his boyhood they were much pursued by the fishing folk and that they were excellent eating, a middle cutlet being considered by many to be as good as the best lobster ever eaten. As a boy he never tired of hearing the fishermen's yarns about how the great savage creatures snapped and fought when they were captured. Lying in the bottom of the boats, they lashed about and bit at the men and at each other. The larger ones would fix on the men's sea boots as they moved about or hang on to their oilskin fishing coats like bulldogs. A bite from one was no joke.

Dogfish abounded at certain seasons in some parts of the fishing grounds; other parts they avoided. Sometimes the men would go out only to catch dogfish just to reduce their numbers a little. They caught great numbers of them and sold them somewhere farther down the coast, keeping back just a few for themselves and their neighbors. You could get a monster for a couple of shillings.

Couch, the naturalist, says he has known scores of the picked dogfish to be taken at one cast of the seine. Robert Chalmers quoted as follows from the "Journal" of Spalding, the town clerk of Aberdeen, 1842: "From the beginning of this year up to June there was a scarcity of whitefish along the east coast to the hurt and danger of the poor and beggaring of the fishermen. It was reported that when the fishers had laid their lines and taken fishes abundantly there came one beast called the seadog to the lines and ate and destroyed the haill bodies and left nothing on the lines but the heads. The like scarcity of fishes to continue so long has scarcely been seen in Scotland, while all other meats were also very dear."—Pall Mall Gazette.

A FAMOUS DUELIST.

This French Fighter Was Gallant as Well as Courageous.

The Marquis de l'Angle-Beaumanoir was in his younger days famous as a duelist. One evening, meeting his cousin, the Marquis du Hallays, in the foyer of the Opera, he walked up to him and in the course of conversation remarked:

"Isn't it odd, my dear fellow, that, quarrelsome as you and I are, we should never have fought with one another?"

"That's true," replied Du Hallays, "but that can always be remedied."

And on the strength of that the two cousins met in mortal combat on the following morning, the encounter resulting in the Marquis de l'Angle Beaumanoir having his right hand pierced by his adversary's rapier, which, while it rendered a continuance of the fight impossible, left the other hand free to grasp that of his cousin in undiminished friendship a moment afterward.

On another occasion when he was about to fight a duel in which he was entirely in the right and his adversary in the wrong he suddenly discovered that his opponent was a perfect novice in swordsmanship and that he would therefore have him completely at his mercy. So he strode up to him and in the presence of twenty or thirty persons presented the most courteous and full apology. Almost dumfounded, the latter inquired why the marquis assumed such an extraordinary course. "Because," he returned, "it would really be too unfortunate if I were to fight with a mazette (greenhorn)." And with that he made a low bow and then turned his back upon him.

Told the Truth.

"What did Burroughs say when you made him that loan?"

"He said he would be under obligations to me for the rest of his life."

"Well, I expect he will."

Not So Wonderful.

"Do you think they'll ever run autos on two wheels?"

"Sure. That's the way Willie Chuggers always turns a corner."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ destroys the hair, so if you want to save your hair and stop it from falling out and even bring back a new growth, Herpicide is the only preparation that will do it. It is also a most delightful dressing. It makes the hair soft and glossy and stimulates the growth. Sold by druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, one dollar per bottle. The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

S.S.S. REMOVES BLOOD HUMORS

When the blood is pure and healthy the skin will be soft, smooth and free from eruptions. When the blood becomes infected with some unhealthy matter or poison, the skin is the first to show it in pimples, boils, eruptions, sores, scales, scabs, or some other form of skin disease. The skin is provided with [illegible] drainage system to rid the body of impurities that is constantly passing through the pores in the form of perspiration. These [illegible] glands pour out on the skin an oily substance to soften the hair and skin. When the blood becomes filled with poisons and impurities they are thrown off through the pores and glands, forming and fertilizing the soil, drying up the natural oils so that we have not only pimples, boils, S. S. Rheum, etc., but such dry, scaly skin affections as Eczema, Psoriasis and kindred troubles. The treatment of skin troubles such as sores, washes, lotions, etc., is not along the right line. True, such treatment relieves some of the itching and discomfort and aids in keeping the skin clear but it does not reach the real cause of the trouble, which are humors in the blood and it can therefore have no real curative effect on these skin affections. S. S. S., a gentle acting and perfect blood purifier, is the best and quickest treatment. It goes down into the blood and removes the humors, fiery acids and poisons from the circulation, cools the overheated blood, and by sending a fresh stream of nourishing blood to the skin permanently cures skin diseases of every character. S. S. S. is made entirely of healthful purifying roots, herbs and barks, and is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. S. S. S. cures Eczema, Acne, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Psoriasis, and all other disagreeable and unsightly eruptions of the skin. Special book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired furnished free to all who write.

THE LOAF OF BREAD.

Superstitions of Many Lands Connected Therewith.

THE CROSS UPON THE LOAF.

Survival of an Old Pagan Custom. What a Crack Across the Loaf Means—The Oven a Sacred Object. Omens on Birth, Marriage and Death.

One morning one summer, when I was spending a few days at a farmhouse in eastern Ohio, the good housewife showed that she was troubled. Naturally I inquired the cause. "Oh," she said, "I'm afraid something dreadful will happen. This morning I put a batch of bread into the oven, and all the loaves except one cracked across the top."

"What if they did?" I replied in tones of curiosity.

"Don't you know," she said, with an air of surprise, "that when bread cracks across the top it means misfortune to some one in the family? I would not have had it happen for the world."

As I left a few days after this mishap to the bread I never learned whether the sign was a true omen or not. However, the housewife had contributed to my stock of information and had given me an item of folklore that led to further investigation.

One of my German friends tells me that in many parts of his native country the housewife still believes that cracks on the top of the loaf of bread indicate the death of some one in the household or perhaps misfortune to a dear friend, while cracks on the lower side of the bread are taken to indicate a birth.

As many of us know, bakers in many places mark the sign of a cross upon the dough before placing it in the oven. The reason for making this sign became plain when we know the origin of the custom. Almost all our superstitions about bread date back to old pagan days, though they have been greatly modified so as to conform to Christian beliefs. With the ancient Romans the baking of bread and cakes was often invested with a religious significance, especially the cakes offered to the gods and goddesses. These cakes were prepared in a particular way, and after being marked with the symbol of the deity in whose honor they were offered they were supposed to possess supernatural virtues.

The old domestic practice was modified when Christianity became triumphant, and in place of a pagan symbol the early Christian housewife not only used to make the sign of the cross when she began to knead the dough, but she marked that sign upon her loaf before placing it in the oven. Why? Simply because the sign of the cross is the recognized Christian protecting mark against the attacks of evil spirits, witches and the like; hence bread marked with the cross is supposed to be witchproof, will bake all right, not crack across the top, etc.

Just as the Jews have passover cakes and other peoples have had specially prepared food for their religious festivals, so the Christians have cakes for certain seasons. Our hot cross buns on Good Friday are simply modern representatives of the cakes used at some old pagan festival.

In truth, to study the superstitions about bread is to take a wide lesson in folklore. These superstitions relate to the kneading trough, the oven, bakers and bread. For instance, in many parts of France the arche, or kneading trough, is more than a rude kitchen utensil. It is often a pretty bit of furniture. M. Sebillot, who collected many of the superstitions of the French folk relative to bread, quotes the story of a thief who entered the window of a house with intent to commit burglary, but refused to step on the trough still containing the dough, believing that to do so would be an impiety.

A writer in an English magazine says that in Gottland the cross is still signed before the oven fire is lighted or the dough kneaded. This practice is very common in the country districts all over Europe. In Brittany the housewife makes the sign of the cross with the right hand while she places the left hand in the trough. After the dough is kneaded, the lid of the trough is shut, and so is the door, for if the cat should enter the room the bread would not rise. Certain charms or invocations are used to cause the bread to multiply itself. Thus the peasant housewife adjures the dough to imitate the leaven, the wheat the miller and to rise. She would be very angry if any one should sing or whistle in the room while she is making the loaf.

In some parts of Europe the bake oven is almost a sacred object. In certain places of Brittany, for example, it is dedicated with ceremonies. The wood is sprinkled with blessed water. The proper heat is attested by the melting of a bottle, and finally an egg is broken for luck. Besides, there are certain days on which bread must not be baked, as on Holy Friday or during the night of All Saints, when the ghosts would be sure to eat it.

The loaf of bread itself is connected with a whole crowd of superstitions. According to an old English superstition, if a loaf accidentally parts in the hand while an unmarried lady is cutting it this may be taken to indicate either that she will not be married during the next twelve months, or, what is worse, that there will be dissensions of some kind in the family. Some folks have a fear of turning a loaf upside down after cutting it. Of course it is everywhere regarded as bad luck for a piece of bread to fall on the buttered side.—New York Post.

Growing Girls

Growing girls need care, advice and medicine, especially on reaching the age of puberty. A mother's tender care and words of caution will often accomplish wonders. As for medicine, a gentle, safe and reliable strengthening tonic is Wine of Cardui,

It will prevent and relieve pain, regulate the functions, clear the complexion and strengthen the constitution.

It is a valuable medicine for growing girls. It has tided thousands over a critical period, and saved them from years of suffering. It can never do harm and is sure to do good.

A relief or cure for all female disorders in girls and women.

At every druggist's in $1.00 bottles. Try it.

WINE OF CARDUI

Ostriches Are Poor Sailors.

"Ostriches are terrible creatures to have aboard ship in a storm," said a sailor. "Knocked about by the waves, they fall and break their legs. We once carried eight superb ostriches. They were good sailors. Their sea appetites were fine. But two days from port a nasty gale overtook us. And then it was pitiful to see those ostriches. The ship's lurches and ducks knocked them off their pins, sent them rolling back and forth, to and fro, wildly, helplessly. Imagine a dozen ostriches, now on their feet, then—bang—on their backs, their long legs in the air, rolling every which way. What you'd expect to happen happened, of course. Their legs broke. You could hear above the storm the sharp crack of the splitting bone. Of those eight fine ostriches only two reached port alive."

Books Written in Jail.

Jail seems to be a good place in which to write books. Literary men surpass themselves there. John Bunyan wrote "Pilgrim's Progress" in jail. Cervantes wrote "Don Quixote" in prison. Defoe laid the plans for "Robinson Crusoe" during a term of confinement imposed on him for the writing of a pamphlet called "The Shortest Way With the Dissenters." Leigh Hunt wrote "Rimini" in jail. Sir Walter Raleigh during his fourteen years' imprisonment in the Tower of London wrote his excellent "History of the World." Silvio Pellico and Tasso both did their best work in jail.

Food and Digestion.

One of the biggest mistakes about food which people make is to forget that the true value of food to anybody is the measure of its digestibility. Half a pound of cheese is vastly more nourishing, as regards its mere composition, than half a pound of beef; but while the beef will be easily digested, and thus be of vast service to us the cheese is put out of court altogether for ordinary folks by reason of its indigestibility. We should bear this rule in mind when we hear people comparing one food with another in respect of their chemical value.

A Careful Official.

"Some years ago," remarked a physician, "when the people in the south feared that an epidemic of yellow fever would spread from Cuba to this country the health board officer of a certain southern city was so careful to keep out the infection that he gave orders to disinfect all telegrams received from Havana."

Don't Grumble

When your joints ache and you suffer from rheumatism Buy a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and get instant relief. A positive cure for rheumatism, burns, cuts, contracted muscles, sore chest, etc. Mr. I. T. Bogy, a prominent merchant at Willow Point, Texas says that he finds Ballard's Snow Liniment the best all-around liniment he ever used. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Likes Being Hunted.

The extraordinary intelligence and skill displayed by reynard when being hunted makes it extremely probable that he, in common with the huntsman and the hounds, feels the keen pleasure of the pride of art—an important constituent of the spirit of the sport. In proof of this, an old fox, when fresh, has often been observed to wait for the hounds, apparently with the purpose of drawing them on, and so giving an opportunity for the display of his skill. The fox owes his present existence in England to his skill in providing sport, and it is not therefore unreasonable to suppose that he has acquired the sporting instinct, just as the pointer, the hunter and the terrier certainly enter into the spirit of the sport for which they have been bred and to which, therefore, they owe their existence.—London Standard

HOW BONNER WON SUCCESS

The career of Robert Bonner, the veteran publisher, furnishes a signal illustration of the value of persistent and sagacious advertising. When he began the publication of the paper whose phenomenal success brought him fame and fortune, he did not wait for the people to find out, slowly and gradually, the interesting features of his journal.

He forced his enterprise upon public attention by a systematic lavishness of expenditure for advertising which at that time was without precedent or parallel. Whole pages of daily newspapers were secured at high prices to blazon forth the merits of his undertaking.

From one end of the country to the other the names of Bonner and his Ledger were made familiar to the people by constant repetition.

Conservative publishers, jogging along in the ruts of old routine, prophesied bankruptcy and ruin for this unconventional innovator, but Bonner kept on spending a large share of his receipts in buying publicity, and those receipts increased with startling rapidity.

Every dollar disbursed in this way brought in more dollars until croakers were confounded and pessimists in this particular branch of business silenced by his tremendous success.

The lesson is one that is as well worth heeding today as it was forty years ago.—Philadelphia Bulletin

Large space in this paper is one of the best investments a merchant can make.

Wanted—Two papers of the 9th of April and 1st of May. We will give 10 cents for the first paper of each of the above mentioned dates and 5 cents for the second.

M. Clements of Hawthorn was in the city yesterdaw. Mr. Clements is an engineer, but is farming this year. He reports the showers very disagreeable to one who is trying to harvest hay.

Charlie Fisher, who has been here a few days with friends, left yesterday for Manistee, Ala., where he will join his father, H. A. Fisher, and brother, Covey, who are engaged on an extensive contract for brick work.

For Rent—One nine-room house, furnished, three blocks from the square, also one seven-room house with bath, furnished; new house, new furniture within six blocks of the square. Apply C. F. Goodman Co., Graham building.

Remember that next Monday is legal sales day, on which date Tax Collector Dickinson will dispose of all real estate on which State and county taxes have not been paid. The advertisement appears for the last time in The Sun next Saturday.

B. E. Tallant, who has just moved here from Christianburg, Va., has opened a tinshop in the store next to Royal Cook on Wall street. He is a practical tinner and has had over twenty years' experience in his business. See his advertisement in another part of the paper.

County School Board meets next Tuesday. All having business before the board will be governed accordingly.

Four small farms and two dwelling houses in town for sale. People wishing to locate near Gainesville would do well to write me. M. B. Saunders.

Mrs. C. L. Carter and baby and the former's aunt, Mrs. Hudson, leave today for North Georgia, where they will remain the balance of the heated term.

Just received fresh lot of fine candies, such as marshmellows, chocolate almonds, chocolate covered caramels and many other varieties. Saunders & Earle.

The construction of new dwellings in Gainesville continues, and as soon as the contract is let for a new one there are from two to three applicants for the same.

For Sale or Rent—Nicely equipped truck or chicken farm in North Gainesville. Good house, barn, chicken houses, and excellent water. Apply Mrs. W. L. Roberts, city.

As an evidence that the people of this section are in easy circumstances one has only to note the large number of citizens who are now either spending the summer in the mountains or at the seashore.

C. M. Collins, wife and children have just returned from a pleasant visit to friends and relatives in North Carolina. They were in Gainesville for a little while on their way to their home at Evinston.

Mrs. A. W. G. Torbert, who has moved to Miami to live, has had her household furniture shipped to her. Friends here are sorry to see her leave, but trust that she and her family will be well pleased with their new home.

MURDER MYSTERIES

A "Jack, the Strangler," Turns Upin New York.

One Woman Found by Police Choked to Death, Another Strangled with a Necktie Knotted Tightly About Her Throat.

New York, July 31.—The bodies of two women with the marks of strangling on their throats, have been found here within the last twelve hours, and the police believe that one man committed both crimes. None of the victims has been identified.

One woman was found dead in an alleyway early Tuesday. The marks of a thumb and a forefinger were visible on her throat, and her face and neck were covered with blood. She was about 27 years old.

No one in the neighborhood had heard any sound of a struggle.

In the other case, the woman was the victim of a strangler, and was found in a Twenty-second street boarding house. The woman came to the house with a man who gave his name as Davis. Her body was found Monday night in the room the couple had occupied. A necktie had been knotted tightly around her throat, and she had been dead for several hours.

The blood vessels in the neck were broken and the woman's clothing was drenched with blood.

No trace of the man, who had the appearance of a foreigner, has been found.

The dead woman was about 24 years of age.

CLAIMED OFFICERS FLUNKED.

New York Policemen on Trial for Alleged Cowardice.

New York, July 31.—Two policemen, Stephen Walsh and Tracy Ross, are on trial before Police Commissioner Bingham, on charges of cowardice. The men, it is alleged, allowed Frank H. Warner just after he killed Esther Norling, in Forty-second street, recently, but when Warner fired a shot, the pursuing officers are said to have fluked and allowed him to escape.

The cases are attracting a good deal of public attention because while in the past there have been many and varied charges against New York policemen, this is the first time in forty years that the courage of any of the men have been questioned.

Lightning Plays Havoc.

Lexington, Ga., July 31.—A heavy storm passed over this county Monday, accompanied with heavy thunder and vivid flashes of lightning. Among other casualties lightning struck the barn of Dr. W. H. Reynolds, in town, passing down through the roof, killing his fine-blooded mare, "Red Bird," worth $300. It passed diagonally through the hall and killed a fine mule in the opposite of the stable. The barn was burned in places, but not destroyed.

Big Fire at Rushton, La.

Rushton, La., July 31.—Fire that started in the union railroad station here burned that structure and after spreading to adjoining buildings, destroyed property valued at about $75,000 before being finally subdued. Besides the railroad station, buildings occupied by Thompson & Hitchcock were destroyed. The offices of the Adams and Wells-Fargo companies were also burned. The origin of the fire has not yet been determined.

Russo-Japanese Treaty.

Paris, July 31.—M. Kurino, the Japanese minister to France, is the authority for the following information concerning the Russo Japanese treaty on commerce and navigation, which was signed at St. Petersburg. The treaty embraces five subjects: Commercial relations, fishery rights, construction of the Manchurian railway, the delimitation of frontiers and political relations.

IMPORTANT RULING.

Is Made by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Washington, July 31.—In an opinion handed down by Commissioner Clements, the interstate commerce commission decided that the present rate of 41 cents per hundred pounds on cotton goods by the sea and by rail from Augusta, Ga., to New York is not unreasonable.

The case was that of the Warren Manufacturing company, of Augusta, and others against the Southern railway company and others. The commission held that the absorption of a competing line of railway by another is an alleged violation of the statutes of the state is a matter within control of the state courts and can be considered by the commission only in its ultimate results of inducing unreasonable rates.

Further, the commission holds that the violation of the so-called anti-trust act by unwarranted agreements to the restraint of trade by carriers of interstate commerce is not within the jurisdiction of the commission, but only the correction of unreasonable rates which may be the purpose and effect of such legal act.

The long-continued carriage of any article of freight at certain rates, while establishing a presumption that such rates are reasonable and remunerative, is not alone conclusive, but to carry such presumption must show a settled practice or policy.

Where a rate is comparatively the lowest in its territory on a given article of freight and by reason thereof is made the basis of reductions from competitive points, it will not be further reduced on the ground alone that it had, at stated times in the past, been somewhat lower, unless it be shown that it is unreasonably high for the service performed.

POWERS AGAIN ON TRIAL.

Sensational Motion Made to Swear Judge Off the Bench.

Georgetown, Ky., July 31—For the fourth time Caleb Powers was placed on trial here Monday, charged with complicity in the murder of William Goebel, with Special Judge J. E. Robbins on the bench. Immediately after court convened Judge James E. Sims, of counsel for Powers, entered a motion and filed an affidavit in its support to have the sitting judge sworn off the bench.

Court adjourned until Tuesday to give the commonwealth attorneys time to consider the motion and affidavit.

Although not officially given out, it is reported that the allegations against Judge Robbins are sensational, charging prejudice in the former trial. The court will pass on the motion for removal.

Prohibition Stops Building.

Savannah, Ga., July 31.—The Union Savings Bank, of Augusta, some time ago determined on the erection of a thoroughly modern and up-to-date office building. The committee having in charge the matter of selecting the plans visited Savannah and were so favorably impressed with the National building that they had about determined to have a similar building erected. Accordingly, they were on the eve of closing a contract with Architect H. W. Witheover for plans when the prohibition agitation became so acute that they wrote him on Saturday that the idea of making the improvements had been abandoned. They gave state prohibition as a reason, saying it would greatly injure Augusta if the bill was passed.

Posse Kills Negro.

Westchester, Pa., July 31.—Geo. Thomas, a negro, who shot his wife here Sunday and then fled, was traced to a barn near here Monday night. Thomas refused to surrender, and shots were exchanged. At daylight Thomas was found dead in the hay-mow with a bullet hole in the temple. It has not yet been determined whether he shot himself or was killed by a bullet fired by one of the posse. His wife is dying in a hospital here.

Business Blocks Burned.

Auburn, N. Y., July 31.—Fire destroyed three business blocks in the village of Moravia early Tuesday, entailing a loss of $25,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

POLICE INVESTIGATE

New York Police Promise Startling Developments.

BLACKMAILING SCHEMES

Armenians Said To Be Practicing Extortion Methods, Securing Money from Other and More Prosperous Armenians.

New York, July 31.—The police and district attorney's office promise new and startling developments in their investigation of blackmail and extortion practiced upon prosperous Armenians in this city by other Armenians, and the murder recently of H. S. Tavshanpian, the wealthy rug merchant.

It is stated that Bedros Hamparbonian, who killed Tavshanjian and is now in the Tombs under indictment for murder in the first degree, lived at Lowell, Mass., at the home of an uncle for several years. His real name is said to be Bedros Kachadorian. He is an ardent adherent of the Hunchakist, the Armenian society, one faction of which is credited with threatening merchants with death if they do not contribute to revolutionary funds.

Khachadorian is said also to have always been devoted to Father Martoogessian, the Armenian priest who has been placed under arrest in connection with the case. The priest, it is said, visits him in Lowell.

WOMAN WAS SCALPED.

Remarkable Accident Happens to a Montgomery Young Lady.

Montgomery, Ala., July 31.—Miss Kate O'Connor lies in a critical condition at St. Margaret's hospital, with her scalp torn from her head from under one ear to the other and the certainty of being bald for the rest of her life.

Passing under a shaft at a local ice factory Monday night, her hair was caught and she was jerked from her feet, hanging there for several minutes, while her scalp was pulled slowly from her skull. She was unconscious when the doctor arrived, but fainted soon after.

At the hospital she is said to be resting easily with every prospect for great disfigurement for the rest of her life. She was a member of a party of young people who had gone to the ice factory for a watermelon cutting.

PASSENGERS WHITEWASHED.

Peculiar Occurence in Fourth Avenue Tunnel in New York.

New York, July 31.—Fifteen passengers, generally well dressed, were whitewashed Monday night while riding through the Fourth avenue tunnel in an open car.

Whitewashers of the tunnel roof and walls are using a pneumatic spray system and as the car in question came along something went wrong and the spray was directed toward it. The motorman according to the passengers, stupidly stopped his car. He was drenched. Then he started the car through the stream and as it slowly began to move there was ample time to drench every one of the passengers. The angry passengers declared their white suits would become damage suits.

Johnstone to Succeed Pettus.

Birmingham, Ala., July 31.—The successor to Senator E. W. Pettus, who died Sunday in Hot Springs, N. C., will be former Governor Joseph F. Johnston, of Birmingham. At the state primaries last year candidates for the alternate senatorships were voted on and Senator J. H. Bankhead received the highest vote.

Church Destroyed by Lightning.

Wrightsville, Ga., July 31.—Information has been received at this city that the Rehoboth church in this county has been burned. The origin of the fire was caused by lightning, there being in that section in the morning a terrible electrical storm.

ROADS FILED PETITIONS.

They Make Parting Shot at State Authorities.

Asheville, N. C., July 31—A parting shot at the state authorities in the railroad controversy was fired through petitions which the Southern railway and the Atlantic Coast Line filed before Judge Pritchard on Monday, asking that his interlocutory injunction be modified in accordance with the "peace" agreement reached Saturday at Raleigh between Glenn and the railroads.

Both roads filed petitions very similar in tenor which explained a conference here Monday between attorneys representing the two roads. The petition of the Southern railway recites the entire history of the railroad cases and includes a protest against what the roads regard as their ill treatment, this protest and recital of facts being designed for perusal of the supreme court of the United States as well as for the public.

The railroads declare, in effect, that they were clubbed into becoming a party to the agreement effected at Raleigh that the public mind has been inflamed by the newspapers and the utterances of politicians, and the agreement was only assented to under duress, because of threats of an extra session of the legislature for the purpose of adopting legislation hostile to the railroads.

HIS SANITY DOUBLTED.

Huntington Shot Brothers and Sisters at Bedside of Dying Father.

Versailles, France, July 31.—M. Hirsch, the examining magistrate before whom the Huntington case has been brought, has decided that Henry Huntington who Sunday night shot and wounded two sisters and two brothers at the bedside of his dying father, should be examined as to his sanity.

M. Hirsch told the Associated Press that the prisoner, who at times was strangely agitated, told such conflicting stories that he was convinced he was suffering from neurasthenia and the magistrate considers that Henry Huntington's wife is similarly affected.

Mrs. Huntington admitted that her husband had twice been under treatment for nervous disorders.

Homecomers Tendered Reception.

Boston, July 31.—The host of homecomers, who are in this city attending the old home week exercises were tendered a public reception Tuesday at which they were welcomed to the state and city by Governor Guild and Mayor Fitzgerald. The feature of the events of the day was a muster and play out of veteran firemen, half a hundred hand tubs participating in the display after a march through the principal streets of the city. The families whose members are scattered over many sections of the country gathered here for their reunions and one of them, the Fairbanks family, had as its representative the vice president of the United States.

Another Alpine Victory.

Geneva, July 31.—Another hitherto unclimbed Alpine mountain has been surmounted by Signer Castelnuovo, a Milanese, who has ascended the highest of the three peaks called the Dames Anglaise in the Mont Blanc range. It is 11,400 feet high, the last few hundred yards being a smooth and practically perpendicular rock. Nearly all the most celebrated mountain climbers in Europe, including the duke of Abruzzi, have vainly attacked the peak which has come to be regarded as insurmountable. Signor Castelnuovo was twelve hours making the ascent.

Drouth in Jamaica is Severe.

Kingston, Jamaica, July 31.—The central districts of this island are suffering from a severe drouth and the outlook for the banana crop is not bright. The drouth, it is said, has caused greater loss than even the earthquake and fire which laid Kingston in ruins last January. There is a severe famine in some districts of St. Elizabeth parish and half a dozen deaths from starvation have been reported. A short, sharp earthquake shock was felt here Sunday. No harm was done.

NATIONAL CAPITAL IS NOW DESERTED

Cabinet Officers and Chiefs of Divisions are Away on Vacation.

NOTICEABLE IMPROVEMENTS

New Union Railroad Station will Be Completed in a Few Months—Pennsylvania Avenue Being Beautified. Complaint on Quality of Postcards.

(Special Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., July 29.—The dull, hot season is upon us. The Capital City has long been deserted by the legislative, executive and judicial branches of the Government. Not a cabinet officer remains, and the chiefs of divisions and many subordinates are away on summer vacations. Much improvement is going on in Washington, rendered possible by recent appropriations. Five massive white marble Government buildings are nearing completion. The new union railway station, which, except in height, is [illegible] than the capitol of the United States, will be finished in a few months. Pennsylvania avenue is being elevated and resurfaced. The [illegible] which thirty years ago was a [illegible] reaching from the Potomac [illegible] to the White House and covering [illegible] forty-four hundred acres, has [illegible] filled in and is laid out in [illegible] gravel boulevards, walks and [illegible] driveways for equestrians. It is [illegible] with lakelets, trees and [illegible]. No other city is better endowed with park area, and Washington promises to be in time one of the [illegible] most beautiful cities.

[illegible] or through the industrial [illegible] commission, established by [illegible] with the money from [illegible] Peace Prize, might have a [illegible] to get to work in the [illegible]. The strike that has [illegible] out in the Lake Superior iron [illegible] is more interesting to the Federal [illegible] than anything in that [illegible] the bituminous hard coal strike [illegible] years ago. The men in the [illegible] fields have been very contented [illegible] a number of years past. [illegible] an immense body, mostly [illegible] or of foreign extraction, [illegible] depends in a large measure [illegible] of the iron and steel [illegible] of the country. It is claimed [illegible] of Minnesota that [illegible] have been influenced [illegible] strike organizers and [illegible] who were satisfied [illegible] have preferred to stay at [illegible] been driven out by [illegible] of violence.

[illegible] is a bad enough situation, but [illegible] claimed, and it is believed [illegible] truth, that the organizers [illegible] the agents of the Western [illegible] of Miners. The Federation [illegible] been trying for years to [illegible] the Superior field and has [illegible] unsuccessful, principally because [illegible] employers treated their [illegible] and did not encourage [illegible] of unionism that has made [illegible] of Alma and Cripple Creek [illegible]. However, the Federation [illegible] a good foothold in Minnesota [illegible] the present strike is the first [illegible]. It is a serious thing from a [illegible] standpoint, because if the [illegible] are tied up for any length of [illegible] will cripple the iron and steel [illegible], on which so much of the material prosperity of the country depends. The United States Steel Corporation, which is the practical owner [illegible] immense iron fields, has announced its intention of fighting the [illegible] to a finish and crushing the [illegible] in this part of the country [illegible] for all. A prolonged strike [illegible] region would be a National [illegible] and it is possible that the [illegible] commission in Washington, [illegible] has so far not taken part [illegible] a single labor dispute, will feel [illegible] to assert itself and see what [illegible] be done.

There have been complaints recently from all over the country as to the quality of postcards and stamped envelopes furnished. The Government is lavish in stationery of all sorts for its own use. Such stationery is either bought in the open market—which is done in only a few cases—or else is secured either under advertised bids or "invitation bids," which is a very nice simple scheme for getting a contract just where the Government purchasing agent wants it. But the postcards and envelopes are furnished by contract and bought and printed by a private firm up in New England. The quality of the envelopes has usually been satisfactory, but the postcards, never very good, have been getting steadily worse of late years. The contract is to be done over by the Postmaster-General, who will see if something cannot be done to raise the quality of the postcards, and it is thought that the envelopes will be improved at the same time. It is understood that this is the last year the contract for postcards and envelopes will be put out, as there is a chance to have the work done just as well and cheaper at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

GAY ROCKY POINT.

Mesdames T. F. Davis and W. B. Crown Give Entertainment.

The people of Rocky Point are among the most hospitable in the county, and the announcement of a social feature in that community is always hailed with delight by the residents of the surrounding country. The past week has been an especially enjoyable one, two delightful entertainments having been given, one Thursday evening and another Saturday evening.

On the former date Mrs. T. F. Davis tendered a reception in honor of her son, Mr. Eldridge Reeves, who was home on a visit. The entire people of the community were present to meet Mr. Reeves and enjoy the hospitality of his mother and the event will long be remembered as one of the most pleasant in the history of Rocky Point. Delightful refreshments were served, and sweet music lent enchantment to the occasion.

Saturday evening Mrs. W. B. Crown entertained the young people of Rocky Point and a few invited guests from Gainesville. This, too, was a most enjoyable function of the season, music and refreshments lending zest to the event. Among those present from Gainesville were Mrs. Maretta Brooks, the popular musician, Misses Estelle Beal, Bessie Bunch and Margaret Merchant.

LAKE CITY VS. GAINESVILLE.

Colored Teams Occupied Ball Grounds Yesterday—Gainesville Victorious.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun.

The game of baseball at the park yesterday between the Lake City and Gainesville colored teams was a one-sided affair. In fact, it was so one-sided that The Sun's special reporter for the occasion was unable to count the runs made by the Gainesville team. He remarked that Lake City never scored, but that Gainesville "scored" Lake City.

The Lake City boys say they were tired out yesterday by the long trip, but that they will show the Gainesville darkies "how to play ball" today. It looked as though they were "throwing" the game at times yesterday, but they will find the Gainesville team their match whenever they desire to put up a good game.

Beautiful Women.

Plump cheeks, flushed with the soft glow of health and a pure complexion, make all women beautiful. Take a small dose of Herbine after each meal; it will prevent constipation and help digest what you have eaten. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Tex., writes, May 31, 1901: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we ever used for constipation, bilious fever and malaria." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

HIGH SPRINGS NEWS.

Bishop Weed Delivers Two Excellent Sermons—Personal Notes.

High Springs, July 29.—W. B. Riviere, for years a highly esteemed citizen of High Springs but now living at Sutherland, was in town the past week looking after his interests.

Dr. Everard Blackshear has gone to the Jamestown Exposition.

Mrs. B. Dougherty of Jacksonville, after a very pleasant visit to Mrs. Geo. Glass, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sheffield of Lake City spent several hours in High Springs Friday en route to Cedar Key.

Bishop Weed spent Sunday here, the guest of Mrs. J. O. Bannon. He preached two very fine sermons to appreciative congregations.

Mrs. Leon Hatchell left Thursday to spend some time in Mobile, Ala.

Mrs. Ethel Warren has gone to Savannah for a visit to friends, after which she will visit Florence, S. C., and other points before returning home.

Miss Annie Lou Hodges entertained in a delightful manner the "500" Club on the evening of the 23rd. Mrs. Ethel Warren won first prize and Mr. Charles won second prize. Among those present were Mrs. E. K. Anderson, Mrs. Laura Dennis, Mrs. J. H. Sails, Mrs. Ethel Warren, Mrs. Leon Hatchell, Mrs. M. P. Summers, Miss Maude Thomas, Moss Muriel Futch Miss Annie Lou Hodges, Messrs. Hugh Futch, Jesse Mizelle, Roy Frink, M. P. Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

In the Mayor's Court.

The mayor's court opened promptly at 9 o'clock Monday morning and at once started to dispose of the cases brought before it.

The first to be brought up was Robt. Sherrod, who was arrested for reckless driving. He was found guilty and fined $5 and cost. A. Stroble was the next up, being charged with fighting. He was found guilty and assessed the sum of $2.50 and cost, which was paid. Ernest Hickory was also found guilty of fighting and fined $5 and costs. Mose Malphurs, for being drunk, was fined $2.50 and costs.

VERY SAD DEATH OF YOUNG MAN

Son of R. L. Tyson Meets Tragic Death at Trenton

WHILE OPERATING GRIST MILL

Negro Lost Control of Engine and Young Man Was Struck on Side of Head by Rock, Inflicting Fatal Wound—Buried Sunday.

News of one of the saddest accidents that has occurred in Alachua county for some time was brought to the city Monday by Rev. G. T. Taylor of Newberry.

Mr. R. L. Tyson of Trenton conducts a grist mill for the accommodation of the people of that section, and during his absence last Saturday the mill was being operated by his young son and a negro man, when in some manner the negro lost control of the engine and the rock, which crushes the corn, flew off and struck young Tyson on the side of the head, inflicting a ghastly and fatal wound. He was taken to Dr. Clyatt's office and administered to, but the skillful physician was unable to save the life, and he soon passed away into the keeping of the Creator who gave the life.

The sad death has cast a gloom over the entire community, and the parents have the sympathy of the people in their sad bereavement.

DEATH OF S. T. PRESCOTT.

Passed Away at His Home at Alachua Early Monday Morning.

Information reached this city Monday of the death of S. T. Prescott, one of the oldest and best citizens of the county, which occurred at his home in Alachua at an early hour Monday morning, after a brief illness with congestion of the bowels.

Mr. Prescott was one of the oldest and best-known citizens of his section, having resided at Alachua for many years. He was 69 years old and served in the war between the states, being a staunch believer in the Confederate cause.

The deceased is survived by a wife, one son, Wade Prescott of Alachua, and two daughters, Mrs. Dr. Caswell of Alachua and Mrs. Caswell of Live Oak. The funeral occurred Monday afternoon, interment being made in the family burying ground at Old Newberryville.

The Sun, with other friends, extends sympathy to the bereaved in their irreparable loss.

DEATH OF COL. KINNEBREW.

Former Citizen of Gainesville Dies at Georgia Summer Resort.

The Atlanta Journal of last Sunday contains the following under an Athens, Ga., date line:

"Last evening at Franklin Springs, Mr. R. H. Kinnebrew died, after a lingering sickness. He had recently moved to Athens from Florida, coming here because of ill health, and had only a few days before gone to Franklin Springs.

"For many years he was a leading citizen of Danielsville. He leaves a wife and eight children, and a brother, Dr. E. R. Kinnebrew, this city. The burial will take place at Winterville this afternoon."

The above will be sad news to the many Gainesville friends of the deceased. Col. Kinnebrew removed to this city with his family some two years ago from Oklahoma. He was a lawyer by profession, but for several months was engaged in the real estate business here, being associated with A. O. Steenburg. He was an amiable gentleman of retiring disposition, and he and his excellent family were held in high esteem by the people of Gainesville, all of whom regretted their departure from among them. The family have relatives residing at Hawthorn, in this county. The bereaved widow and children and other relatives have the deepest sympathy of the people of Gainesville in the irreparable loss.

Children in Pain

Never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

NORTH GAINESVILLE.

Junior Christian Endeavors Give Ice Cream Social.

One of the most delightful entertainments in North Gainesville for several weeks was the ice cream social at the hall Monday night under the auspices of the Junior Christian Endeavor society.

The following literary program was a pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment:

Dialogue: "Gossip"—Ruth Fisher, Bessie Ramsey, Rosa Bailey, Ellen Bennett, Blanche Thompson and Willie May Ramsey, dressed as young ladies.

Recitation: "A Passenger for Sleepy Land"—Mabel Williams.

Recitation: "The Terrible Destruction of Noah's Ark"—Marie George.

Organ Solo—Ruth Fisher.

Recitation: "The Two Miss Angelina Rosa Maries"—Willie May Ramsey and Hattie Maud Ramsey.

Dialogue: "Occupations for Girls"—Ella Bailey, Irva Bruce, Willie May Ramsey, Hattie Maud Ramsey, Blanche Thompson and Mabel Williams.

March and Drill—Twelve girls.

Ice cream.

The Juniors wish to thank their friends for their liberal contribution of materials for cream and their ready patronage. From the way the ice cream disappeared the children are of the opinion that North Gainesville is hungry for cream, and they may give another social in the near future.

A party of the young people adjourned from the social to the home of Mr. Milo Bennett, where music on guitar and mandolin, with piano accompaniment, and also singing, was indulged in, after which the party serenaded several of the neighbors "By the Light of the Moon."

JUDSON NEWS.

Particulars of the Sad Death of R. L. Tyson's Young Son.

Judson, July 30.—The eleven-year-old son of Mr. R. L. Tyson was killed Saturday at Trenton while dipping meal at the grist mill of Hardee Bros. The mill rock became so hot that it exploded and knocked young Tyson senseless. They took him to Dr. Clyatt's office, where everything known to medical skill was done for him, but he died within a few hours. The funeral was held Sunday, interment being in the Hardee burial ground, near Long Pond. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

Rev. W. J. Martin of Lottieville is here sick, having been taken ill on his way home from Ebeneezer, where he had been to fill his appointment.

M. F. Collins and family attended church Sunday at Ebeneezer, near Newtown.

Farmers are busy pulling their fodder. They report cotton opening rapidly and will soon commence picking the fleecy staple.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wood have gone to Williston to visit Mrs. Wood's relatives. The former's brother, R. E. Wood, is attending to his store and the postoffice during his absence.

Mrs. M. F. Collins visited her sister, Mrs. I. S. C. Sheffield, at Williston last week.

Rev. J. K. Sheffield assisted his brother, Rev. S. W. Sheffield, in conducting a protracted meeting at Morriston last week. He reports a good meeting, the attendance being large and much religious enthusiasm manifested.

Great interest is manifested on the part of the people of this section in the trial of the Lowmans for the murder of Dunlap Phinny, which is being held at the special term of the circuit court at Bronson this week.

SEWER CONNECTIONS.

There is general complaint on the part of property owners at the action of the City Council in adopting ordinances directing the Board of Public Works to make all requisite connections with the public sewer system along the streets, thus depriving property owners of the right to contract for such connections and do the entire work of connecting their premises with the sewerage system at one and the same time, and by the same contractor. Of course such work should be done by a competent plumber and under city inspection, but no one should be denied the right to have the work done within a reasonable time. The ordinance in the interest of having been passed in the interest of some particular individual, instead of in the interest of the whole people.

Section two of the ordinance estimates the cost for the sewerage in front of each lot at seventy-five cents per front foot upon the property fronting or abutting upon streets where connections are made. This estimate is preposterously low, evidently made by persons who know about as much about the matter as the man in the moon. If this estimate was followed strictly in connection with the letter of the ordinance a person owning a one-hundred-foot lot fronting on a particular street would be required to pay $75 for sewerage connection to his property alone, though only twenty feet of the sewerage pipe had to be laid and the person owning a four-hundred-foot lot fronting on the same street under the same conditions would be assessed $300. Will any person contend that this is just? There has been entirely too much favoritism on the part of the powers that be to deprive the people of their rights under the existing charter, and this ordinance is about the limit.

There is not a more orderly town of the size of Gainesville in the United States. There are at least seven thousand souls within the corporate limits, and this vast population is efficiently policed by a marshal during the day and one policeman at night. We do not believe another town in the State can show up as well in this respect.

The death of Senator Pettus of Alabama removes one of the best representatives of the people from the United States Congress. His successor will probably be Ex-Governor Johnston, who was nominated in the primary last summer as his alternate.

In declining to enter the race for United States Senator against Senator Mallory, who had already announced his candidacy for re-election, Senator Adams has greatly strengthened himself with the friends of the latter.

The Pensacola papers are waging war on the low groggeries and other dives with which the Deep Water City is infested. That's right, keep after them until they are run out of the city.

Who says the colored race is not making progress? In Mississippi a mob of negroes has lynched a negro.

OF INTEREST TO SHIPPERS.

The Sun is under obligations to the Florida Railroad Commission for an advance of the law relating to the collection of claims against transportation companies, which became effective June 3, 1907. It will be observed that under this law transportation companies are allowed sixty days in which to settle claims for overcharges, loss or damage, and upon their failure to do so and suit being brought, if the claimant is successful in his suit he will recover the amount of his claim, fifty per cent interest additional and attorney's fees. As the commission says, it is hoped that this law will prove a solution to the much vexed question of collecting claims from transportation companies. Of course the law will apply only to shipments within the State, that is, shipments made from one point in Florida to another point in Florida, and which do not cross the State line in transit.

Following is the act in full, omitting the title and enactive clause.

Section 1. That it shall be the duty of all common carriers operating within the State, and they are hereby required when any person files with or presents to them or any station agent of said common carrier to be filed, his claim for any freight or express lost or damaged by said common carrier, or for any overcharge made by such common carrier on any freight or express, to pay the said claim within sixty days from its filing with or presentation to said common carrier or any station agent of such common carrier.

Section 2. That should any common carrier fail to comply with the provisions of Section one of this act then the said common carrier making such failure shall be liable to the claimant for the amount of his claim and fifty per cent per annum interest on the principal sum of said claim from the date of the filing of the same with, or presentation of the same to, the common carrier or any station agent of such common carrier, and when the said claimant shall bring suit and recover judgment for his claim against said common carrier he shall be allowed the said fifty per cent per annum in addition to the principal sum of said claim, and the same shall be allowed in the verdict giving him judgment. Provided, however, that the claimant shall not recover and have judgment for the said fifty per cent per annum unless he recovers judgment for a sum which fixes the principal sum of said claim at an amount greater than the amount which said common carrier had offered and tendered to the claimant in settlement of his claim before the expiration of said sixty days in which the said common carrier is required to pay such claims under the provisions of section one of this act.

Section 3. That any common carrier who fails to comply with the provisions of section one of this act shall, in the event that the claimant shall prevail in an action to recover on his claim, be liable for a reasonable attorney's fee, and it shall be the duty of the court to allow the claimant such reasonable attorney's fee, which shall be fixed by the court, not to exceed fifteen dollars if the amount recovered does not exceed one hundred dollars, and not to exceed fifteen per cent on any amount recovered greater than the sum of one hundred dollars.

Section 4. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 5. That this Act shall become operative upon its passage and approval by the Governor.

Approved June 3, 1907.

GOV. JOHNSON OF MINNESOTA.

So many new candidates are being mentioned for the nomination by the Democracy for President, who are comparatively unknown by the great majority of the voters, that it would seem appropriate to give brief biographies of the most prominent ones. As William Jennings Bryan has been twice the candidate for the Democratic party, and has thus been more in the public eye than almost any other American, it would be superfluous to give his biography, for his public life is an open book to his countrymen.

Among those most frequently mentioned besides Mr. Bryan are Gov. John A. Johnson of Minnesota, Gov. Hoke Smith of Georgia, Senator John W. Daniel of Virginia, Senator Charles A. Culberson of Texas, Gov. Folk of Missouri, President Woodrow of Princeton University, John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, Gov. Beckham of Kentucky, former Senator Carmack of Tennessee and Judson Harmon of Ohio.

Gov. Johnson will be first considered. He was born at St. Peter, Minnesota, July 28, 1861 of Swedish parents. His father was a blacksmith, who died leaving his family unprovided for. In 1873, therefore, John was obliged to quit school and work for the support of the family. He was employed in a printing office at $10 a month, and gave all his earnings to his mother. Afterwards he became a drug clerk in a drug store, and in 1877 he was getting $75 a month, though but sixteen years old.

He joined the National guard, in which he served seven years, reaching the rank of captain. Returning to the printing business he became a member of the firm of Essler & Johnson, publishers of The St. Peter Herald, of which he was until recently the editor. He has always been a Democrat, and was elected as such to the State Senate, in which he served one term before he was nominated for Governor by his party, in 1904. As a candidate for Governor in that year he received a majority of 6,352 in a total vote of 297,592, although Roosevelt carried the State by a majority of 161,000. As the first Democratic Governor of Minnesota since the war he gave the State a wise, decent, economical administration. He opposed extravagance and every kind of fraud and successfully planned and advocated legislation taxing mortgages, and the steel trust iron ore monopoly, sleeping car companies, etc. He also procured the establishment of a permanent tax commission to adjust the burden of State taxes upon the different counties. He obtained a reduction of freight rates in Minnesota; also a 2-cent passenger fare, and the abolition of the free pass system; and secured the passage of statutes regulating the management of life insurance, which have proven entirely efficient.

In consequence of these reforms, he was renominated for Governor by the Democrats in 1906, and carried the State by a majority of 76,633 votes, showing greatly increased popularity.

Gov. Johnson's position on the important issues of the day can be best told in his own words. For instance, he has recently said: "I believe the States must be absolute in their authority to regulate and control railway rates on business wholly within the States. I believe that the Government should do no business which can be done well, or better, by private individuals. The time has not arrived when there should be even a suggestion of Government ownership of railroads."

GETTING TOGETHER.

President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway, has during the last few weeks devoted a great deal of his time to making addresses before representative commercial bodies in the territory of his railroad for the purpose of overcoming antagonism against the railroads in general.

In his addresses he frankly and honestly confessed, says The Financial World, that there has been many railway abuses and that the public has not been treated as it ought to have been, but at the same time he also assured his hearers that railroad abuses have practically ceased, a confession which ought to satisfy all fair-minded citizens. But the value of the missionary work of Mr. Finley consists in calling attention to the fact that the public needs the railroads as badly as the railroads need the public and that the transportation companies will under the new conditions be better able to live up to their mission if the public meets them henceforth with confidence and not with distrust and thoughtless opposition. Railroads and people have to live together, and it is better if they live in peace than in a condition of constant warfare. It would be better for the public to take the view that it is not to its interest to cut off its nose to spite its face. If appearances don't deceive we are entering an era of getting together of public and railroads. The public in its fight with transportation companies has come out victorious. It has asserted its sovereignty and the railroads have been brought under laws which make them the servants and not the masters of the people. It is now time for intelligent and patriotic citizens to work for peace with the railroads, when prosperity and full development is so essential to the welfare of the country. To cripple the railroads and undermine their credit is against the best interests of all. It will remain to the lasting credit of President Finley to have in numerous convincing addresses shown the people that warfare destroys, while peace is a creator of welfare and happiness.

A THIRD TERM MOVE.

The position of the administration is, according to the Washington correspondent of The New York Evening Post, severely criticised by the foreign embassies in Washington. This authority says:

"The embassies do not believe that the President has any war-like intent in dispatching a great fleet of battle ships to the Pacific, but they do believe that he is engaged in the unworthy occupation of employing international pawns in domestic politics. His motive for playing this dangerous game they believe to lie in a lurking desire on his part to continue himself in office, and make imperative his nomination by the Republicans for a third term."

The Civil Service Commission does not often manage to do anything absolutely unique. To be sure it gets everything and everybody it can inside the classified service, from horse doctors to railroad accountants. But last week it achieved the unusual by issuing an invitation to a competitive examination for knife and scissors grinders. The mental labor involved in grinding knives and scissors is not great. In fact, in the Government service, where the grinding is done on requisition, one does not even have to know how to make change. So the examination in arithmetic was quite elementary, not reaching further than differential calculus. The chief score in the examination depended on skill with the grindstone. And the compensation was pretty good, too, $900 a year. This is going some for a common or garden scissors grinder, and it is understood there was a rush for the positions. Considering the fact that the last examination for translators required a man to know seven modern languages and have an expert knowledge of boiler and steamship construction, and then paid him $1,200 a year, it would seem that scissors grinding was rather the better job. So great has been the rush of applicants that all these grindstone positions have been filled. But there are still a few of the $1,200 translator jobs vacant for anyone who wants to apply.

FROM THE PAGES OF FLORIDA PAPERS.

Temperance Advocates in Clay.

The temperance advocates in Clay county are getting ready for a "wet" and "dry" election, which it is expected will be held early in October. The last election of this kind was held on the 3rd day of October, 1905, and the county went "wet" by thirty-three majority. Two years before the "wet" majority was sixty-eight.—Green Cove Springs Times.

Joins Buttermilk Brigade.

The editor of this paper has already joined the buttermilk brigade and is fortifying for the prohibition fight we believe inevitable two years hence. With only about six of the forty-six counties of Florida in the wet column, the outcome is plain. It will be a five-to-one bet on prohibition in Florida whenever brought to a vote in the Legislature.—Jacksonville Floridian.

Will Have a Monopoly.

Mark this prediction: In eight or ten years the production and culture of mangoes in Lee county will exceed the production of oranges and grapefruit. It is a fruit that will create a market quicker than the grapefruit did, and will be a great deal more profitable than raising citrus fruit. And the best part of it, is the fact that Lee and Dade counties are the only counties in the State that can raise mangoes.—Fort Meyers Breeze.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mrs. B. F. Dillon, one of our best known and most generally beloved women, after a lingering illness, died at her home in this city last Sunday. Mrs. Dillon had been suffering agonies for several months from an incurable malady, and her thousands of friends deeply regretting her loss to her family and the community in which she lived. You will know it is best she should be relieved of the terrible sufferings she so bravely endured.—Jacksonville Floridian

A Growing Family.

Editor Caldwell used to command the attention of the whole State when he traveled with his family. It strikes us that on one occasion we counted sixteen in his party. But the other day we were coming down from West Florida and rode a few miles in the same coach with Governor Broward and his family. Caldwell may have the Governor beat now, but after taking into account the sizes and ages of the Governor's children, all we would ask in backing his majesty for a winner at the end of the race is to give him time. He "is running some."—Fernandina Record.

Between municipal ownership of the waterworks and private ownership of the gas works the good housewife is between the devil and the deep blue sea. If she desires to cook a meal she cannot get sufficient heat from the gas to boil the eggs, and when she desires to take an ablution she cannot get so much as sufficient water in which to wash her hands. We can understand the economy on the part of the municipality in saving wood at the power house and not giving sufficient pressure to force the water to a second story, but we fail to comprehend why the pressure of the gas company is so low, for the more gas burned the more money they make. Few people, however, use the amount of water allowed them, for the simple reason that they cannot get it. In the latter instance we have to pay for something we do not get, which is not the case with the gas.

Red cedar, from which pencils are made, has become so scarce that it enjoys the unique distinction of being bought and sold by the pound. Most of this cedar comes from Tennessee, Alabama and Florida, and the supply in Tennessee and Florida is nearly gone. Fence rails that weathered the Civil war have gone into pencils. Stumps have been dug up and sold for more than did the trees which were cut from them to make railroad ties. Fence posts have given way to newer kinds of wood and have been carted to the pencil factory to be sold for 10 cents a hundred pounds. And yet this red cedar will grow anywhere in the United States where the soil does not contain too much sand or clay; will flourish on land that is unfit for agriculture, and will reach a size fit for pencil-making when twenty-five years old.

BILL FOR DIVORCE.

In the Circuit Court, Eighth Judicial Circuit, Alachua County, Florida.—In Chancery.—Sherman Martin vs. Emma Martin.—Bill for Divorce. Order of Publication.

It appearing by affidavit appended to the bill filed in the above stated cause that Emma Martin, the defendant therein named, is a resident of the State of Florida, and that she has been absent more than sixty days next preceding this Order of Publication, and that she is concealing herself so that service of process cannot be made upon her, and that there is no person in the State of Florida upon service of a subpoena on whom would bind said defendant, and that she is over the age of twenty-one years; it is therefore ordered that said resident defendant be and she is hereby required to appear to the Bill of Complaint filed in said cause on or before the 26th day of August, A. D. 1907, otherwise the allegations of said bill will be taken as confessed by said defendant.

It is further ordered that this order be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in The Gainesville Sun, a newspaper published in said county and State.

CHARGED WITH DESERTION OF WIFE

Alvin DeLano Arrested And Taken Back to Michigan.

WAS RESIDING WITH FATHER

Sheriff Fennell Arrested Young Man in This City and Sheriff of Jackson County, Mich., Came for Him—No Requisition Required.

A short time ago Sheriff Fennell received a letter from Sheriff Geo. H. Bean of Jackson county, Mich., requesting him to take into custody a young white man by the name of Alvin DeLano, who was charged with deserting his young wife in the far Western State. Except for having been given the wrong number of the street as the place of DeLano's residence, Sheriff Fennell experienced no trouble in making the arrest, when he promptly wired the Michigan sheriff to come for his prisoner, and Sheriff Bean reached this city Monday night with the requisition for DeLano from the Governor of Michigan. Of course the prisoner could have required the officer to have Governor Broward honor the requisition, but he consented to return without putting Sheriff Bean to this trouble, and the officer left here Tuesday with his prisoner.

A Young Husband.

Alvin DeLano does not appear to be over twenty years of age. He came to Gainesville about four weeks ago with his father, who is a carpenter residing at 208 West Main street N. He was married about a year ago, it is said, to a very handsome young lady of Jackson, Mich., which is the county seat of Jackson county, but did not live with her long. He was arrested on the charge of desertion, but the case was compromised and the couple again took up their residence in the same house. This did not last very long, however, and DeLano again abandoned his wife. He was arrested the second time and gave bond for his appearance at the term set for his trial, but when the case was called the young man had followed his father to the Land of Flowers. The crime of desertion under the laws of Michigan is a very serious one, the maximum penalty being three years' imprisonment, and it may be some time before father and son again see each other.

Sheriff Geo. H. Bean.

The Michigan sheriff created a very favorable impression with those with whom he came in contact in this city. He is a fine looking gentleman, and has every appearance of being a farmer, though he is not. He is exceedingly popular in his county, as evidenced by the fact that he was the only candidate elected on the Democratic county ticket at the last election. Sheriff Bean extended the county's worthy sheriff a cordial invitation to visit him some time in the near future, and Wash Bean is going to avail himself thereof at his earliest convenience, as he has heard so much regarding the excellent sport running down big game, especially deer, in Michigan that he is anxious to take a look at the country.

CONTRACTED MEETINGS.

F. M. Hartman Makes Interesting Announcement.

The people of the northern portion of this county will have the opportunity to attend a number of revival meetings during the month of August.

F. M. Hartman, Missionary to Cuba, requests The Sun to make the following announcement:

Commencing August 3rd he will commence a meeting at Antioch church, two miles south of LaCrosse, continuing the following week. Rev. Z. A. Hall will preach for the community after Sunday.

A meeting will commence at North Prairie Grove church, two and a half miles south of Worthington Springs, August 18th, Rev. T. J. Vans of Alachua conducting the services each day.

Meetings at LaCrosse will begin August 4th and continue as long as interest warrants. Rev. J. C. Collum of Alachua will do the preaching after the first week.

The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend each and all of these meetings.

THE LOWMANS INDICTED.

For Killing Dunlap Phinny—Motion for Change of Venue.

The news from Bronson yesterday was to the effect that the grand jury had returned true bills against the Lowmans for the murder of Dunlap Phinny, charging them with murder in the first degree. Counsel for defendants moved for a change of venue, which was resisted by the State's attorney, and the court had the matter under consideration. If the motion is granted the case will be tried in Alachua county.

In Judge Mason's Court.

There was a case in Judge Mason's court yesterday in which D. G. Rolland was suing the Cummer Lumber Co. for damages to a cow.

J. A. Carlisle represented the plaintiff, while Judge H. Davis appeared for the defendants. The case was argued before Judge Mason, who took the same under consideration and will render his verdict today.

GRAND OPENING OF NEW HOSTELRY

Reception to The Public Last Night At White House.

GAINESVILLE'S NEW HOTEL

Major W. R. Thomas, Owner, and Proprietor James Van Allen Royally Entertained All Who Attended the Reception—Music and Refreshments.

A large number of ladies and gentlemen accepted the invitation to inspect The White House, Gainesville's new hotel, last night and partake of the hospitality of the owner, Major W. R. Thomas, and Proprietor James Van Allen.

The guests began assembling at an early hour in the evening, and were given opportunity to inspect the new hostelry, which is located on East Main street, north, the most attractive section of the city, and all expressed surprise at the great improvements made in the building.

The vast assemblage was regaled with elegant refreshments, and local musicians furnished enchanting music, which was greatly enjoyed and highly appreciated.

The White House is second to no hostelry in the State of Florida in the way of comfort, and the owner and proprietor propose to conduct it in a manner that will reflect credit upon the city and give satisfaction to those who favor them with their patronage.

Mr. Van Allen is an experienced hotel man, and the public can rest assured that they will get their money's worth at The White House, the doors of which will be opened for business this morning.

HAYWOOD FREE MAN

The Accused Union Labor Chief Has Been Acquitted.

VERDICT WAS NO SURPRISE

After Judge Wood's Charge to the Jury, Which Was Strongly Favoring the Defense, It Was Generally Believed Haywood Would Be Cleared.

Boise, Idaho, July 30.—In the bright sunlight of a beautiful Sabbath morning, William D. Haywood, secretary and treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, walked a free man Sunday, acquitted of the murder of former Governor Frank Steunenberg.

Probability of acquittal was freely predicted after Judge Fremont Wood read his charge, which was regarded as strongly favoring the defense in its interpretation of the laws of conspiracy, circumstantial evidence, and the corroboration of a confessed accomplice.

Moyer and Pettibone To Be Tried.

It was also freely predicted that, in the event of Haywood's acquittal, the state would abandon the prosecution of his associates, Charles N. Moyer, president of the federation, and George A. Pettibone, of Denver.

WILLIAM D. HAYWOOD.

Statements from counsel and from Governor Gooding, dispel this view of the situation. Governor Gooding said:

"The verdict is a great surprise to me, and I believe, to all citizens of Idaho, who have heard or read the evidence in the case. I have done my duty. I have no regret as to any action I have taken, and my conscience is clear. As long as God gives me strength, I shall continue my efforts for government by law and for organizing society.

"The state will continue a vigorous prosecution of Moyer and Pettibone, and Adams and of Simpkins when apprehended. There will be neither hesitation nor retreat."

The verdict came as an electric thrill to the prisoner, to his counsel, to the attorneys for the state, and the small group of newspaper reporters and court officers, who had been summoned from beds, but lately sought, or from offices where sleepless waiting had marked the night.

Tears welled to the eyes of the man, who, during the 80 days of his trial, has sat with stolid indifference written on his every feature. At last, the icy armor that he had thrown about himself with the first of jury selection had been pierced.

Haywood's attorneys were fairly lifted from their seats, and Judge Wood made no effort to restrain them as they surrounded him to shake his

Brewton, Ala., July 31.—Because he objected to his wife's arranging her hair a la Pompadour, Joseph Givens of near this city, who is well known and probably the wealthiest turpentine operator in Alabama, was shot dead by his outraged helpmate last Wednesday. Mrs. Givens is young and pretty and a member of an old and wealthy family. She has not been arrested, and will probably not be prosecuted.

According to Mrs. Givens's story, her husband came home under the influence of liquor. She had just finished dressing her hair, and the sight attracted his attention.

"I told you never to dress your hair that way," the woman says he shouted.

"He caught me by the hair," the wife said, "jerked me to the floor and declared he was going to kill me. I broke away and ran, he followed. Fearing for my life I picked up a shotgun and shot him to the heart. Mr. Givens fell dead. I had to do it to save my life."

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT AT LAKE BUTLER

Two Men Cooked By Escaping Steam from Turpentine Retort.

FLESH DROPPED FROM BONES

In Endeavoring to Stop Leak Retort Exploded, Tearing Away Support and Carrying Men Beneath Mass. Crawled Out, Terribly Burned.

A special to The Jacksonville Times-Union from Starke, under date of July 29th, gives the following details of the horrible death of two men at Lake Butler last Monday:

"News of the horrible death of two men at Lake Butler was brought here today by G. W. Alderman, tax collector. The two men are William Douglass (white), married, and Gabreal Green (colored). These men were working at the retort of the Southern Turpentine Company. The steam gauge showing a pressure of forty pounds, twenty-five being the limit, escaping steam at the top of the retort called their attention and they went to fix it. At the first move in fixing it it exploded, tearing away the support, carrying the men beneath the smoking mass, covered by escaping steam.

"They managed to crawl out but left much of their flesh in doing so. The ribs, some of their ribs, and the bones of the hand were plainly visible. They lingered until Saturday morning in intense agony, when death ended their sufferings."

AWFUL ITCHING BURNING SPOTS

Formed on Legs and Exuded a Watery Matter—Then Spread to Arms—Kept Ankles Bandaged Over a Year Until Skin Was Made Smooth and

TORMENT WAS STOPPED IN 3 DAYS BY CUTICURA

"In December 1905 I had a blood-red spot about as large as a nickel come on my left shin about three inches above the ankle and in about two weeks the same kind of a spot came on the right shin. I did not know but it was poison from some black stockings but my wife said it could not be for she had washed them thoroughly twice. The spots spread until they were some two inches across. Then my shins and under my ankle-bones commenced to break out in a fine rash which extended about halfway to my knees. The burning and itching were something terrible and later the rash began to exude a watery matter. Finally it went to my elbows and above and below them. I doctored with two doctors but it did no good. I kept my ankles bandaged for over a year. One day a friend of mine said he believed the Cuticura Remedies would help me. I sent for them and in three days after using the Cuticura Remedies there was a complete change. The skin cleared up smooth and the itching stopped. I am still using the Cuticura Remedies for, once a week or so, some little spot will break out in a fine rash and commence to itch. But washing with Cuticura Soap and putting on Cuticura Ointment drives it all away. I am seventy-one years old to-day. Geo. N. Westcott, Postmaster, Ceylon, N. Y., Apr. 29, 1907."

SANTA FE NEWS ITEMS.

Very Little Interest Manifested in the Sub-District Election.

Santa Fe, July 30.—The biannual election for trustees of the public school that was pulled off here on the 25th inst. was void of interest, owing to the fact that the three-mill tax had been assessed before hand by order of the board and left nothing for the voter to do but to elect trustees. Twelve votes were cast for trustees, and the same to ratify the three-mill tax that has been assessed. Why not have the election before the assessor's books are closed? is the question often asked.

AUTO WENT INTO DITCH.

In Effort to Save Children, Others Were Nearly Killed.

New York, July 30.—Walter Tod Wilcox, millionaire member of the real estate firm of Osgood, Pell & Co., in an effort Sunday to prevent his automobile from running down two little children, ditched his car and nearly caused the death of his wife, his son, the chauffeur and three other men at Bayside, L. I.

The quick action of Mr. Wilcox saved the children, but everything in the automobile excepting the chauffeur, was thrown to the ground in a ditch.

Mr. Wilcox and three of the men were injured, the woman receiving such scars that she will undoubtedly be disfigured for life.

Contract Made by River Road.

West Point, Ga., July 30—PPresident L. "JUST FROM GEORGIA"

F. L. S. in Atlanta Constitution.

Word for the Millionaires.

Brother Dickey has his word in favor of the millionaires: "Don't de Lawd say—'Blessed is them what hunger an' thirsts after richesness?'"

His Picnic Fun.

A Georgia boy sums up a recent picnic experience as follows:

"We had a high old time. I broke my leg. Johnny broke two, an' pa got home from the Legislatur' dead drunk!"

An Outside Opinion.

"I don't think Solomon was as wise as what they say he was."

"Well, I dunno. He was mightily married, but he had the privilege of choosing himself every day in the week."

His Only Hope.

"Why does that author wear such long hair this hot weather?"

"Well, you see, the newspapers quit writing about him years ago, and his long hair is all that makes the world have to look at him!"

Great in His Line.

That is the way the poet of The Atlanta Courier writes up a local storm:

"Sharks and whales were nothin'—
Fish never seemed in fun.
Even such monstrous stories
Made the river had to run!"

The Billville Banner.

Fire is like the State's on fire, and water the hose on the devil only cools him for business.

Just in the Legislature it will take 1,000-horse electric power to fan the gentlemen to a finish.

The summer hotel is run on the European plan. That is, a guest tries to get to Europe as soon as his board bill is presented.

We are sure that the gentleman from Billville will be able to hold his seat in the legislature. He whipped a mule to get there, and he's used to the devil and high water.

Some of the timid brethren have written their representative that it will be better for him to come home and get shellackers than to remain and get nothing but the place where the hogs eat.

Boy Given Severe Beating.

Nashville, Tenn., July 30.—A dispatch from Guthrie, Ky., says that Lockert was severely whipped by unknown parties near that place last night. Lockert was whipped with switches until the flesh was cut and a portion of his clothing torn from his flesh. He is in an unconscious condition. The men told him that he had done a little too much talking last year about the time the night plant beds were scraped, and they had come for a settlement.

Ticket Agent Re-Arrested.

Raleigh, N. C., July 30.—O. C. Pitts, the ticket agent, of the Seaboard railway, who was recently sentenced to thirty days in the chain gang for violating the new rate law, was released on habeas corpus proceedings by Judge Pritchard, of the United States circuit court, this morning. Pitts was arrested Saturday morning on a warrant sworn out before Police Justice Reynolds who figured as a witness in the habeas corpus proceed-

TWO-CENT RATE LAW.

State of North Carolina Wins in Its Fight for Same.

Raleigh, N. C., July 30.—The state of North Carolina has won in its fight to have its passenger rate law of 2½ cents observed by all the railroads pending an appeal to the courts by the roads of the state which propose to fight the law.

The promise of obedience to the law by the Southern and the Atlantic Coast Line railways, which, since July 1, the date set for the rate law to go into effect, it is said, have been violating the law, which the railroads sought with Governor Glenn, who has stated as a precedent to any agreement he might make, that the 2½ cent rate must be put into effect.

Bear Killed Near Americus.

Americus, Ga., July 30.—An immense black bear was killed by John Renew, a farmer, on Muckalee creek almost in the suburbs of Americus, Saturday. Bears have inflicted considerable damage recently by invading corn fields, and a determined chase resulted in the slaughter of one. The carcass was exhibited and viewed by hundreds of spectators.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in rounded completeness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

THEY FLED IN PA[illegible]

Narrow Escapes of Guests From Big Hotel.

LOST ALL THEIR EFFECTS

One of the Largest Seashore Hotels on the Atlantic Coast, Located at Long Beach, L. I., Burned to the Sands.

Long Beach, L. I., July 30.—[illegible] hundred guests of the celebrated Long Beach hotel, one of the largest seashore hotels on the Atlantic coast, had to flee for their lives early when the hotel was burned to the sands. There was no loss of life, and so far as can be learned, no one was injured.

The guests lost almost all their clothing and personal effects.

The fire was discovered on the third floor shortly after 5 o'clock.

Hall boys and clerks hurried through the smoky corridors and aroused the sleeping guests. The flames spread so rapidly in the [illegible] wooden structure that the guests had barely time to [illegible] some clothing and escape. They fled to the beach and were taken care of by the cottagers.

The hotel burned like tinder and within a short time was a [illegible] ing mass.

It was three stories high, [illegible] ly 500 feet in length, and [illegible] to its capacity, housed 1,[illegible] guests. The loss is estimated at $[illegible].

SECRET OF SUCCESS.

John D. Rockefeller Talks to Sunday School Children.

Cleveland, O., July 30.—[illegible] D. Rockefeller told members of the Sunday school of the Euclid avenue Baptist church Sunday that the secret of success is "To get away from the butterfly pursuits of life and devote yourself to doing good to those around you."

It was his first address to the Sunday school in nearly a year, although he attended church on the last three Sundays.

"How long do you think it has been since I joined Sunday school?" Rockefeller asked a little boy in a front seat.

"Fifty-three years," responded the lad, evidently well informed as to his questioner's life.

"It will be fifty-four years next September since I came into Sunday school," said Rockefeller, "I was fourteen years of age and I remember that event the most important of my life. An old lady came to Sunday and asked if I belonged to Sunday school. I told her I belonged to the Baptist Sunday school and she said she was a Presbyterian and did not have much use for the Baptists, but she told me to come to it, and I have always done so."

Fractured His Skull.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 30.—O. W. Porter, a retired merchant of Bowling Green, Ky., stepped off a moving street car in Tonawanda Monday night and fractured his skull.
